'tis the SEASON

As I sit down to write this letter, I find it hard to believe that in less than a few weeks we'll be getting our families together to celebrate Christmas. And I mean, who doesn't love Christmas? It really is the most wonderful time of the year and this year I'm dreaming up a really good one...

I feel like the whole world stops for Christmas and no matter what is going on in our lives, we seem to be able to put it all aside and somehow manage to find the time to be a little nicer, a littler happier, a little more understanding and possibly more forgiving.

I also know that Christmas is different for everyone. For some it's about pudding, presents and Christmas carols, for others it's about sunshine, playing backyard cricket and having a feast on the 'barbie'.

But there's a bigger reason why all of this matters. There's a bigger reason why the world stops for Christmas – and that reason is LOVE.

No matter who we are or where we live, everything we celebrate at this time of year is because of LOVE. And no matter what we do, no matter how many presents we buy or how much food we eat, at the end of the day – it all comes down to LOVE. So, this Christmas, stop and take a moment. Take a moment for yourself. Take a moment with others. Take a moment to celebrate LOVE.

Wishing you a very Merry Christmas.

And sending you more LOVE than you could imagine.

For THE YOGI

There's an inner yogi in all of us ... whose favourite move is savasana. But seriously, if you're looking for the ultimate feel-good fabrics and perfect workout pieces to bend, flex, breathe and stretch with you, call off the search because it's right here. Don't put up with fabrics that turn sheer when you downward dog or bras that have little to no support. Feel empowered to move confidently without limits, in yoga pieces by Lorna Jane.
